DEPARTMENT OF APPLIED RESEARCH IN LAW AND BUSINESS

About us:

The Department of Applied Research in Law and Business (DCADA) is an interdisciplinary research structure affiliated with the “G.E. Palade” University of Medicine, Pharmacy, Science, and Technology of Târgu Mureș. Its mission is to promote excellence in applied scientific research in the fields of law, economics, and business management, as well as to strengthen the applied dimension of research in the legal and economic domains.

The department is aligned with the university’s institutional strategy for promoting excellence in research and interdisciplinary innovation.

DCADA’s main objective is to develop and disseminate scientific knowledge relevant to the academic, professional, and decision-making environments, contributing to the formulation of public policies and supporting the business sector through applied research and impact analyses.

The Center aims to become a hub of expertise and innovation, by developing projects with tangible impact on the legal, economic, and social environments, and by fostering partnerships between academia, the business community, and public institutions.
