Chapter I. General Provisions/The Purpose of the Methodology

Art. 1. The present methodology establishes the way of granting to finance the dissemination of results of scientific research activities by bachelor and master degree students from UMFST G.E. Palade Tg. Mureș, which have the status of Junior Researcher – Involved level or Junior Researcher – Dedicated level (MFRJRA).

Chapter II. Field of Application

Art. 2. Members of JRA with the status of Junior Researcher – Involved level or Junior Researcher – Dedicated level can benefit the reimbursement of scientific article publishing fees (whether the journal requests a fee) after the article is published and indexed in the database, based on the document that proves the fee has been previously paid by the author, as follows:

- 1) For in extenso articles published in IDB indexed UMFST G.E. Palade Tg. Mureș journals the publication fee is reimbursed up to 200 Euros;
- 2) For in extenso articles published in Web of Science Core Collection journals without an impact factor or with $IF \leq 1$, the publication fee is reimbursed up to 300 Euros;
- 3) For in extenso articles published in Web of Science Core Collection journals with $IF > 1$, the publication fee is reimbursed up to 500 Euros.

Art. 3. Conditions of funding:

- 1) The applicant for funding is the first author and is enrolled in JRA as Junior Researcher – Involved level or Junior Researcher – Dedicated level member;
- 2) Articles reported as indicators within a research project financed from public funds (including JRA grants), for which the expenses have been foreseen, are not going to be reimbursed;
- 3) The articles for which funding is requested, must contain the mention of affiliation to George Emil Palade University of Medicine, Pharmacy, Science, and Technology of Târgu Mureș.

Art. 4. The Procedure for Granting Funding

- 1) For financial support the application must be addressed to JRA, filling Annex 01. The application must be submitted at the University's registry office.
- 2) The application is accompanied by documents that prove the results, as follows:
 - a. proof for IDB indexation of the article;
 - b. proof for Web of Science Core Collection indexation of the article, which also shows the score of impact factor of the journal;
 - c. invoice issued on the name of the applicant;
 - d. the applicant's bank account statement which confirms the amount of the fee was paid.
- 3) The grant is awarded once for an article, regardless of the year of publication, after the indexation in the database.

- 4) The application for financing must be submitted by the student, first author of the article, and member of Junior Research Academy as Junior Researcher – Involved level or Junior Researcher – Dedicated level.
- 5) Funding is granted on a first-come, first-served basis, within the limits of the allocated budget.

Art. 5. UCSDT/JRA can make revisions of the present regulation in accordance with new identified needs or as a result of changes in the legal framework.

The present regulation was approved by the Senate of the George Emil Palade University of Medicine, Pharmacy, Science, and Technology of Târgu Mureș on the 4th July 2024 and comes into force on 5th July 2024.
